PROCLAMATION

Recognizing Public Safety Telecommunicators Week • April 10 – 16, 2022

Whereas, public safety telecommunicators are the first and most critical contact our citizens have with emergency services and the prompt response of police, fire, or emergency medical services is critical to the protection of life and preservation of property; and

Whereas, National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week celebrates and honors telecommunications personnel by recognizing their dedicated service in helping those in need through the use of telecommunications; and

Whereas, Helotes dispatchers are highly trained individuals devoted to public safety dispatching and strive for consistent excellence in customer service while maintaining the highest level of professionalism; and

Whereas, today, we salute our Dispatch Supervisor, Jaime Ostrander, and our Dispatchers, Ashley Suarez, Joseph Scott, Stephanie Vullo, Aracili Garcia, and Samantha Phelps for their exemplary service, compassion, and professionalism during the performance of their duties and remind them that they truly make a difference each and every day as the first level of emergency response in the City of Helotes.

Now, Therefore, I, Rich Whitehead, on behalf of the members of City Council, and by the virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Helotes, Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of April 10 - 16, 2022 as National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week and recognize our dispatchers for their service to our community.
